

My first attempt:

Amazing Anglo-Saxons!

Introduction

The Anglo-Saxons were an amazing bunch of people that shaped the way in which we live in modern Britain. They were known as settlers, not invaders, they sailed across the North Sea over 1600 years ago! From what is now known as mainland Europe. This non-chronological report is going to explore who the Anglo-Saxons were, where they came from, how they lived and who were their rulers (kings and queens, not the stationary)!

My second attempt:

After reading through the list of challenges, I realised that I had missed some of the items out, so I thought I would revisit my work and see if I could improve it. I also thought my first attempt was a little dull.
